RED RAIDERS LOOK TO KEEP SADDLE TROPHY

Texas Tech returns to the road on Saturday to square off against TCU in Fort Worth, seeking to capture the Saddle Trophy for a second straight year. This begins back-to-back weeks on the road for the Red Raiders with Iowa State due up next. Tech is 1-1 away from home this season, most recently defeating Arizona in Tucson on Oct. 5. Tech won back the Saddle Trophy a year ago at home, topping TCU 35-28, after dropping a heartbreaker in 2022, a game Tech led 17-13 on the road after three quarters against a TCU team that was ranked No. 7 at the time.

TECH SEARCHING FOR ANOTHER ROAD WIN

The Red Raiders will be looking to build off their 28-22 road win at Arizona a few weeks ago this weekend at TCU. With a win, Texas Tech can secure back-to-back Big 12 road wins for the first time under Joey McGuire, and the first time since 2021. The turnover margin is one key element to Texas Tech's potential success. Texas Tech is a perfect 5-0 when it leads the turnover margin and 0-2 when trailing in it as the Red Raiders will be facing a TCU program that is minus-10 in the turnover margin entering this weekend.

BROOKS APPROACHING 4,000 CAREER YARDS

Tahj Brooks will enter Saturday's game needing another strong performance to become only the third Red Raider and the ninth Big 12 player in history to reach 4,000 career rushing yards. Brooks, who is third in the country this season with 134.0 rushing yards per game, needs 144 yards on the ground versus the Horned Frogs to reach the 4,000-yard mark. His chase to snap Byran Hanspard's career rushing total is now down to 363 rushing yards after he carried 25 times for 125 yards and a touchdown last weekend versus Baylor.

RED RAIDERS BY THE NUMBERS

Behren Morton is one of only nine FBS quarterbacks and the lone one from the Big 12 to have 200 passing attempts this season with three or fewer interceptions. Of that group, he is third with 17 passing touchdowns.

Caleb Douglas joined Tahj Brooks versus Baylor as Red Raiders with three touchdown performances this season. Tech is one of six schools nationally with a rusher and a receiver owning a three-score game.

17

Tahj Brooks is only the second FBS player since 1996 to rush for 95 yards or better over 17-consecutive games. Only trailing Mohamed Ibrahim (Minnesota) in that span, who had 19-straight games from 2020-22.

KEY: *Big 12 Conference game | ^Southwest Conference game

+ Non-conference game

SERIES NOTEBOOKINSIDE THE TCU SERIES

■ Texas Tech and TCU will meet on Saturday for the 67th time in history as the Red Raiders lead the all-time series with a 33-30-3 advantage. This will be the 13th meeting between the two former Southwest Conference foes since the Horned Frogs joined the Big 12 prior to the 2012 season.

■ Texas Tech and TCU were previously members of the Southwest Conference from 1960-95 where the Red Raiders controlled a 21-12-3 advantage. The two schools met twice as non-conference foes in 2004 and 2006 prior to TCU joining the Big 12 in 2012. The two schools split those two non-conference games with the Red Raiders delivering a 70-35 rout in 2004 followed by a 12-3 victory by the Horned Frogs two years later.

■ The Red Raiders defeated the Horned Frogs a year ago with a 35-28 victory in Lubbock. The victory snapped a four-game losing streak to the Horned Frogs, which previously marked Texas Tech's longest losing streak in the series since the first five contests from 1926-30. It was the longest winning streak for either team in the series since the Red Raiders rolled off six-consecutive wins from 1985-90 during their stay in the Southwest Conference.

■ Texas Tech is 3-3 in road games against the Horned Frogs since TCU joined the Big 12 Conference prior to the 2012 season. All three of those victories have been by only three points with two heading to overtime as the Red Raiders needed triple overtime to edge TCU in the first-ever Big 12 meeting between the two schools in 2012 and then two extra periods in 2016. The two teams played a defensive battle in 2018 with the Red Raiders prevailing with a 17-14 victory. TCU has won each of the last two meetings in Fort Worth.

BATTLE FOR THE SADDLE TROPHY

■ Texas Tech will look to keep the Saddle Trophy in Lubbock in back-to-back seasons for the first time since the two schools brought back the traveling trophy in 2017. Texas Tech and TCU previously played for the Saddle Trophy from 1961-70 - dubbed at the time as the "West Texas Championship" - before it suddenly disappeared. The new saddle sits on a stand and includes the logos for both Texas Tech and TCU as well as the scores for the 60-plus meetings all-time in the series.

TEXAS TECH-TCU CONNECTIONS

■ This week's matchup will place the Red Raiders against a fellow Texas Tech graduate in TCU head coach Sonny Dykes. Dykes, the son of legendary Red Raider head coach Spike Dykes, received his bachelor's degree in history from the university in 1993 and was a member of the Texas Tech baseball program for two seasons. He previously spent seven seasons as an assistant coach for his alma mater, serving as receivers coach from 2000-04 before adding the title of co-offensive coordinator from 2005-06 under Mike Leach. Dykes is the fifth Texas Tech graduate since 1975 to face his alma mater as an opposing head coach, joining Tom Wilson (Texas A&M 1978-81), Art Briles (Baylor 2008-15), Lincoln Riley (Oklahoma 2017-21) and Eric Morris (North Texas 2024).

■ Texas Tech, meanwhile, has a TCU graduate on its staff in defensive line coach Zarnell Fitch, who earned his degree in communications with a minor in social work in 2006. Fitch was a two-year letterman for the Horned Frogs from 2004-05 where he made three starts as a senior. He arrived at Texas Tech following six seasons serving in a similar capacity for his alma mater under former head coach Gary Patterson.

■ Fitch isn't the only former TCU assistant now on the Texas Tech staff as associate head coach and special teams coordinator Kenny Perry received his first collegiate position with the Horned Frogs. Perry, a DFW native, served as TCU's director of high school relations in 2013 before being promoted to cornerbacks coach the following year. Additionally, he also previously worked under TCU head coach Sonny Dykes as a special teams quality control analyst at SMU in 2020 and then as the special teams coordinator for the Mustangs in 2021.

■ Perry also previously worked alongside TCU inside receivers coach Doug Meacham during their two seasons together at Kansas. Perry was Kansas' special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator from 2017-18, while Meacham was the Jayhawks' offensive coordinator. TCU offensive line coach A.J. Ricker was also in the same role for the Jayhawks in 2018 alongside Meacham and Perry.

■ TCU, likewise, has two former Texas Tech assistants on its staff in special assistant to the head coach Mark Tommerdahl and nickels coach Julius Brown. Tommerdahl was previously the special teams coordinator for the Red Raiders from 2019-21, while Brown was the cornerbacks coach in 2019.

■ Texas Tech outside linebackers coach C.J. Ah You is a former college teammate with TCU outside receivers coach Malcolm Kelly, who both starred at Oklahoma together during the 2005-06 seasons. Ah You was tabbed the Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year as a junior in 2005. That same year, Kelly was recognized as a first-team All-Big 12 honoree and a Freshman All-American.

■ TCU defensive coordinator Andy Avalos and Texas Tech defensive passing game coordinator and secondary coach Marcel Yates were both on the same Boise State staff from 2014-15 with Yates as the defensive coordinator and Avalos as the linebackers coach. Yates joined the Boise State staff, his alma mater, originally in 2003 as cornerbacks coach when Avalos was a junior linebacker for the Broncos.

■ Yates and Texas Tech defensive coordinator Tim DeRuyter also worked alongside TCU linebackers coach Ken Wilson for one season at Oregon. DeRuyter and Yates both arrived at Texas Tech after spending the 2021 season at Oregon where they both served in similar capacities as their roles at Texas Tech. Wilson, meanwhile, was Oregon's co-defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach that season, which earned him the head coaching job at Nevada.

■ There will be a pair of Stephenville greats associated with Thursday's game in Texas Tech sophomore wide receiver Coy Eakin and TCU offensive coordinator Kendal Briles. Eakin led the nation in receiving yards as a high school senior after hauling in 93 passes for 2,140 yards and 31 touchdowns en route to leading the Yellow Jackets to the 2021 Class 4A Division I state title. It marked Stephenville's sixth state title in its history. Briles previously led Stephenville to a perfect 16-0 record and Class 4A Division II title in 1999 before transferring to Frenship High School outside of Lubbock.

■ Texas Tech has one former Horned Frog on its roster in redshirt freshman defensive back Javeon Wilcox, who arrived at Texas Tech this summer following one season at TCU. Wilcox has yet to see action in a game this season following a preseason injury.

TCU CAREER NOTABLES

■ C.J. Baskerville helped lead the Red Raider defense against the Horned Frogs a year ago as he finished with a team-high nine tackles in the win. Those nine tackles matched his career high at the time, which was snapped only a week later with 11 stops in the win at Kansas.

■ The Horned Frogs will be facing Tahj Brooks for the fourth time in his career as the senior running back has 41 carries for 2015 yards and a touchdown in his career versus TCU. The bulk of that yardage came in last season's victory as he was called on for 31 carries for 146 yards and a touchdown. The performance pushed him over the 1,000-yard mark for the season as he eventually became only the fifth Red Raider in program history to record 1,500 rushing yards in a season. Up until last season, Brooks had a limited history versus TCU with only 10 carries for 59 yards in 2022 as he missed the 2021 meeting due to injury and did not receive any attempts as a true freshman in 2020.

■ The 2023 meeting between Texas Tech and TCU served as a breakout game for Coy Eakin, who caught a career-high eight passes for 78 yards in the win. The performance started a run over five-consecutive games with three or more catches to end Eakin's redshirt freshman season, which was capped by seven receptions for 106 yards and a touchdown in the Independence Bowl victory over Cal.

■ Gino Garcia connected on one of his three successful field goals from more than 50 yards last season versus TCU as he found the uprights from 55 yards out with just under a minute to play before halftime. It was Garcia's second-longest field goal of the season as he became the first Red Raider in program history to boast three successful field goal attempts in a season of 50 yards or longer.

■ Drae McCray provided the game-winning touchdown in last season's victory over the Horned Frogs as Behren Morton found him over the middle for a 44-yard strike early in the fourth quarter.

■ This will be Behren Morton's third career start versus the Horned Frogs as he has combined to complete 35-of-46 passes for 361 yards and three touchdowns with no interceptions the past two seasons. Morton departed his last visit to Fort Worth early as he was 7-for-10 for 79 yards and a touchdown prior to leaving with an injury. He led the Red Raiders to victory last season after completing 28-of-36 passes for 282 yards and two touchdowns.

■ Jacob Rodriguez returned for the first time since the season opener at Wyoming a year ago against TCU as he finished with six tackles in the win. It was one of four regular-season games for Rodriguez, who came off the bench to help bolster a Red Raider defense that limited TCU to only 87 rushing yards.

BACK HOME IN THE METROPOLIS

■ The trip to Fort Worth will be a homecoming of sorts for multiple Red Raiders who will be able to play in front of friends and family as Texas Tech boasts 25 players from the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex to go along with numerous coaching staff members. That list includes numerous starters, including offensive lineman Caleb Rogers, placekicker Gino Garcia, defensive lineman DeBraylon Carroll, outside linebackers Charles Esters III and Harvey Dyson II, linebacker Ben Roberts and defensive backs Brenden Jordan, C.J. Baskerville and Chapman Lewis.

■ The Texas Tech coaching staff features four members who were previously high school head coaches in the DFW area, none more notable than Joey McGuire, who led Cedar Hill to three state titles during a memorable 14 seasons. McGuire, a native of Crowley roughly 15 miles from TCU's campus, coached his entire career in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex until accepting an assistant coaching position at Baylor ahead of the 2017 season.

■ In addition, the Texas Tech staff also features two one-time DFW head coaches in Kenny Perry and Zarnell Fitch, who began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Lincoln High School from 2011-12 before being promoted to head coach for the 2013 season, his final one before being hired by TCU. The DFW area is also home to Texas Tech offensive passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach Julius Johnson, a Richardson native.

■ Perry remains one of the most popular coaches in the Dallas-Fort Worth area even after his move to the collegiate level. Perry, a past director of the North Texas High School Football Association and board member of the THSCA, was previously the head coach of Arlington Sam Houston from 2000-03, Haltom City from 2004-05 and then Arlington Bowie from 2006-12. He was a combined 67-22 during his seven seasons at Bowie alone and was recognized as the Dallas Morning News Coach of the Year in 2007.

■ The Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex is home to Texas Tech's largest alumni base in the United States outside of Lubbock as approximately 40,000 graduates currently reside in the area. Texas Tech has enjoyed great fan support in the DFW area due to its large alumni base as Texas Tech previously hosted Baylor at AT&T Stadium in Arlington annually from 2009-18 as well as spring football games at The Star in Frisco in recent years. The Red Raider basketball program, meanwhile, turned a neutral site NCAA first and second-round location in Dallas into United Supermarkets Arena with capacity crowds in 2018.

LUBBOCK, TEXAS (AP) - Behren Morton threw for 282 yards and two touchdowns, with the go-ahead 44-yard score to Drae McCray with 10 1/2 minutes left, and Dadrian Taylor-Demerson's second interception was a game-clincher in the final minute as Texas Tech beat TCU 35-28.

Tahj Brooks ran for 146 yards on 31 carries, his sixth 100-yard game this season to become the first Texas Tech running back to surpass 1,000 yards in a single season since DeAndre Washington in 2015.

Josh Hoover, in his third start for TCU filling in for injured Chandler Morris, completed 32 of 52 passes for 353 yards and a touchdown. But his second interception with 55 seconds left ended a potential game-tying drive when Taylor-Demerson picked it off at the Tech 19.

Taylor-Demerson's first interception, in the final minute of the third quarter, gave the Red Raiders possession at the TCU 16 and set up Brooks' 9-yard TD run before Morton's 2-point conversion throw to wide-open Jerand Bradley for a 28-21 lead.

RED RAIDER NOTEBOOKWHAT A WIN WOULD MEAN SATURDAY...

- Texas Tech will be looking to get back in the win column Saturday following a disappointing loss to Baylor. A victory over the Horned Frogs would push the Red Raiders to 4-1 in Big 12 play for the first time since 2013 and keep Texas Tech in the Big 12 title game discussions.
- A victory over TCU would push the Red Raiders to a bowl appearance for a fourth-consecutive season and the 42nd time in program history. Texas Tech leads all Big 12 programs with 41 bowl appearances in its history. The Red Raiders have not clinched bowl eligibility prior to the month of November since the 2013 season.
- Texas Tech will be searching for consecutive Big 12 road victories for the first time in Joey McGuire's tenure and the first time since the Red Raiders topped both West Virginia and Kansas early in the 2021 season.
- The loss to Baylor halted a 3-0 start to Big 12 play for the Red Raiders, who had not previously opened their league slate with three-consecutive wins since 2013. It was the fifth time in program history for Texas Tech to start 3-0 overall as a Big 12 member as the Red Raiders also did so in 2008, 2005 and 1998. Texas Tech has reached a bowl game in each of its previous four occurrences with a 3-0 conference start.
- A victory over TCU would also push the Red Raiders to 6-2 on the season, marking the first time Texas Tech won six of its first eight games since that same 2013 season. The Red Raiders started a perfect 7-0 that season before ending the regular season with five-consecutive losses.

TEXAS TECH 3-0 STARTS ALL-TIME IN BIG 12 PLAY

Year	Big 12 Start	Wins	Final Record
2013	4-0	TCU, KU, ISU, WVU	8-5
2008	6-0	KSU, NEB, A&M, KU, UT, OSU	11-2
2005	3-0	KU, NEB, KSU	9-3
1998	3-0	ISU, BU, OSU	7-5

FIRST HALF GOAL ACCOMPLISHED

- The start to the season was a point of emphasis for Joey McGuire entering this season as the Red Raiders hoped to improve on the 3-3 starts from each of his first two years. Texas Tech entered the back half of its schedule at 5-1 overall following its road win at Arizona, marking its best record through six games since 2013.
- The Red Raiders have closed each of the past two seasons on strong notes under McGuire, who is a combined 6-2 in the month of November.

A CHALLENGING START

- Texas Tech's journey to a 5-2 start this season has come despite facing a schedule against opponents that are a combined 30-13 this season in games not involving the Red Raiders. That .714 winning percentage ranks tied for eighth in the FBS entering this weekend and fourth in the Big 12.

HOME SWEET HOME UNDER MCGUIRE

- Each time the Red Raiders practice inside Jones AT&T Stadium under Joey McGuire, the video boards now on both ends of the field read simply "Protect Jones AT&T." Texas Tech has been effective in front of its home fans under McGuire as, despite the Baylor loss, the Red Raiders are still 14-4 at home in his two-plus seasons, including a 4-1 mark this year.
- McGuire's 14-4 start (.778) in home games thus far matches the most wins through 18 games all-time among Texas Tech head coaches alongside Spike Dykes (1986-99). McGuire and Dykes, both 14-4 early in their tenures at home, trail only E.Y. Freeland by winning percentage as Texas Tech's first-ever head coach was 13-2-3 early in his tenure.

■ The loss to Baylor snapped a six-game home winning streak dating back to the end of the 2023 season, which was the longest since the Red Raiders won a school record 12-consecutive games inside Jones AT&T Stadium over the course of the 2007-09 seasons.

- The Baylor game concluded a seven-game stretch to start the season where it played five games at home. It was only the fourth time in the Big 12 era for the Red Raiders to start a season with five of their first seven games at home as Texas Tech also did so in 2000, 2005 and 2016.
- In its history, Texas Tech has hosted seven or more home games 13 times previously with the most recent being in 2022. The Red Raiders are scheduled to host seven home games in three of the next four seasons as part of its new non-conference scheduling model to prioritize home agreements.

TEXAS TECH FOLLOWING OPEN DATES

- The loss to Baylor snapped a three-game winning streak for the Red Raiders in contests following an open date as Texas Tech is now 20-14 in those games during the Big 12 era. It was the first of two open weekends on the 2024 season as the Red Raiders will receive another open date following the Nov. 9 home game versus Colorado.

- Texas Tech had won eight-consecutive games following an open date versus unranked foes up until Baylor as the Red Raiders' last loss previously came in the 2013 regular-season finale at Texas. The Red Raiders are now 17-7 over the course of their time in the Big 12 when coming off an open week against an unranked opponent. It marked the first such loss for the Red Raiders under Joey McGuire.

NAIL BITTERS

- Texas Tech has gone down to the wire to secure four of its five wins this season as the Red Raiders are a perfect 4-0 in games determined by eight points or less. The Red Raiders are now 11-3 in one-possession games under Joey McGuire, a drastic improvement for a program that was only 13-20 in similar contests the seven seasons prior to his arrival. Texas Tech was 4-0 in one-possession games during McGuire's debut season in 2022 before finishing 3-3 a year ago.

THE UNOFFICIAL HOME OF THE THSCA

Since his hire as Texas Tech's head coach, Joey McGuire has made it a point to brand the Red Raiders the "unofficial home of the Texas High School Coaches Association." Already a Hall of Famer, himself, McGuire has hired a charter staff filled with experience at both the collegiate and high school levels with four assistant coaches who have previous ties to the THSCA as well as a slew of support staff members.

Texas Tech also has three current student-athletes on its roster whose fathers are prominent high school coaches in the state in Allen's Lee Wiginton, the father of junior wide receiver Haydon Wiginton, Amarillo Tascosa's Ken Plunk, the father of senior defensive back Joseph Plunk and Eastland's James Morton, the father of junior quarterback Behren Morton. Lee Wiginton is the past president of the THSCA.

- Texas Tech has won each of its last seven games determined by eight points or less, marking its longest streak since the NCAA introduced overtime prior to the 1996 season. Six of those victories have come during Big 12 play, including in each of the last three games. Texas Tech and Arizona State are the only FBS teams in the country this season with four wins in one-score games.
- Texas Tech is an impressive 8-1 at home in one-possession games under McGuire with the lone loss coming early in the 2023 season to No. 13 Oregon. The Red Raiders are 3-2 on the road with wins at Iowa State in 2022, at Kansas in 2023 and then Arizona this season.

THE HOTTEST TICKET IN TOWN

- Texas Tech sold out of season tickets for the second consecutive season in early May as Red Raider fans purchased more than 32,000 season passes for the 2024 campaign. Texas Tech has also sold out of its entire premium seating inventory in all areas of Jones AT&T Stadium, including the new south end zone addition.
- Over his three seasons as head coach, Texas Tech has added more than 13,000 season tickets since McGuire's hiring in November 2021. Texas Tech previously sold 28,000 season tickets for McGuire's debut season in 2022, which, like this year's total, ranks among the top-10 highest season ticket counts in program history.
- Texas Tech had a capacity crowd of 60,229 fans on hand three times already this season against Abilene Christian, Cincinnati and last weekend versus Baylor. Texas Tech already has another sellout on the docket as its Nov. 9 date versus Colorado reached sold-out status weeks ago.
- Texas Tech is averaging 59,469 fans through its first five home games of the season, which ranks 29th nationally and second in the Big 12 Conference behind only BYU.

SERIES NOTES

- Texas Tech begins the month of November with a road trip to Iowa State where the Red Raiders won in their last visit, 14-10, behind a strong defensive performance. The Red Raiders are 2-0 all-time in November games played in Ames as Texas Tech also topped the Cyclones late in the 2014 season.
- Texas Tech leads the series with a 13-8 advantage with wins in each of the last two meetings, both of which pushed the Red Raiders to bowl eligibility. The Red Raiders used a 62-yard field goal by Jonathan Garibay to top the Cyclones in 2021 before outlasting Iowa State in a defensive battle in 2022. The two schools did not play each other last season as part of a 14-team format for the Big 12 Conference.
- Texas Tech is a combined 6-2 during the month of November during head coach Joey McGuire's two-plus seasons.

RED RAIDERS NOTCH WIN NO. 600

■ The Red Raiders secured their 600th all-time win against Arizona State as Texas Tech is now 602-482-32 over its 99-plus seasons of football. Among power conference schools founded since 1900, it is the third-most wins nationally, trailing only Miami (660) and UCLA (631).

FIVE RED RAIDERS NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

■ Joey McGuire announced back in January the naming of five team captains for the 2024 season in senior running back Tahj Brooks, senior offensive lineman Caleb Rogers, junior quarterback Behren Morton, junior linebacker Jacob Rodriguez and senior linebacker Bryce Ramirez. The five captains, all previous members of McGuire's leadership committee during the 2023 season, were tasked with identifying and developing new leaders for the football program throughout spring practices as well as enhancing Texas Tech's player-led culture. This is the first time during McGuire's tenure he has named set captains as he previously relied on a leadership committee of upperclassmen from each position group.

DEGREES IN HAND

■ The Red Raiders entered the 2024 season with 20 student-athletes who are current college graduates, including 16 who earned their degree from Texas Tech University.

IT'S ALL (WEST) TEXAS

Since his arrival at Texas Tech, Joey McGuire has made it clear the Red Raiders will be built by the best talent the Lone Star State has to offer. Texas Tech boasts 98 players on its roster from the state of Texas alone, which leads all power-five programs and ranks second among all FBS programs in the state.

Note: Numbers are reflective of active rosters on Aug. 19.

HELMET COMMUNICATION NOT NEW HERE

- One of the major rule changes for the 2024 football season will be the implementation of helmet communications. Texas Tech offensive coordinator Zach Kittley will be able to speak directly to quarterback Behren Morton up to the 15-second on the play clock. On the defensive side, coordinator Tim DeRuyter will send the play in through inside linebacker Jacob Rodriguez, who will call it out to the secondary and front seven.
- Texas Tech is one of only a handful of teams with experience using headset communications as the Red Raiders utilized it this past season in the Independence Bowl. In fact, Texas Tech and Cal were the first teams to roll out the new technology during bowl season as 14 different games either used helmet communications or sideline smart tables.

AMENDOLA PART OF HALL OF FAME CLASS

- Legendary Texas Tech wide receiver and return specialist Danny Amendola will be among the six inductees to the Texas Tech Hall of Fame during a Nov. 8 ceremony at Lubbock Memorial Civic Center. The entire class will be honored the following day during an on-field recognition against Colorado.

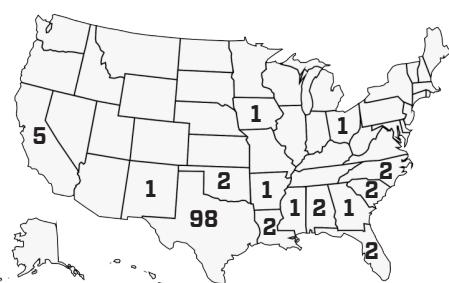

- Amendola was a three-time All-Big 12 honoree, earning first-team accolades as a punt returner in 2004. He remains one of the best wide receivers in school history after catching 204 passes for 2,246 yards and 15 touchdowns over his four seasons, ending his tenure in scarlet and black as one of only the five Red Raiders at the time to record 200 career receptions. Amendola still ranks as one of only three Red Raiders in program history to total more than 100 returns and 1,000 punt return yards in a career.

HOMETOWN PRIDE

- Texas Tech will continue to recognize the hometowns of every student-athlete on its roster this season with a special decal on the back of each gameday helmet. The decal will feature a throwback Masked Rider logo with the area code associated with each student-athlete's hometown as part of an initiative started in 2022 by head coach Joey McGuire.

FROM ACROSS THE WORLD TO LUBBOCK

- Texas Tech has three international student-athletes on its roster this season in Australian punter Jack Burgess, defensive back Devynn Cromwell, a native of Canada, and offensive lineman Maurice Rodrigues, who grew up in the country of Jamaica before moving to California in high school. The Red Raiders had not previously boasted an international student-athlete on its roster since Australian punter Dominic Panazzolo from 2017-18 and before that since Patrice Majondo-Mwamba, a native of Belgium, ended his Red Raider career in 2004.

SOUTH END ZONE & WOMBLE FOOTBALL CENTER

THE NEW HOME OF TEXAS TECH FOOTBALL

- Texas Tech will officially open the South End Zone and Dustin R. Womble Football Center project this season, featuring more than 340,000 combined square feet of space with a blend of world-class modern design and technology elements with Spanish Renaissance architecture well known to Texas Tech supporters. The $242 million project marks the largest contiguous football facility in the country, connecting the south end zone building to the Womble Football Center and the Sports Performance Center, which opened in 2017 as Texas Tech's indoor football practice facility and indoor track and field venue.
- Joey McGuire and his staff moved into their new coaches' offices on the second floor of the south end zone building in July, giving them a stunning view overlooking Cody Campbell Field at Jones AT&T Stadium. The office location places McGuire and his staff steps from each position room and the skybridge connected to the Womble Football Center where offensive and defensive breakout rooms will be located as well as a team meeting space and a state-of-the-art walkthrough area on the second level.
- Texas Tech is slated to open the Womble Football Center side of the project this fall as the two-story building will maintain its football strength and conditioning, sports medicine and equipment areas on the main level as part of the new layout. The Red Raiders' main locker room will be located in the Womble Football Center, which includes space for 120-plus athletes and modern primary designs from Hollman that are fully ventilated and contain USB charging ports and DreamSeat technology for every player.
- The second floor of the Womble Football Center will feature a revolutionary 4,500-plus square foot multi-purpose walkthrough area designed for large-scale indoor team strategy implementation, instruction and technique evaluation only a few steps from the team meeting space and position rooms. The space will feature a 25-by-20 yard turf surface in front of a 70-foot wide by 10.5-foot high LED screen that will be the largest in both college football and the NFL for walkthrough areas. The LED screen will allow Texas Tech's coaches to simulate an opponent's formation and scheme, giving the Red Raiders real-time feedback through the advanced technology during game preparations.
- Texas Tech will boast a 15,000-square-foot, two-level weight room once completed, one of the largest in college football. The weight room area is located in the southwest corner of the Womble Football Center, giving the Red Raiders direct access into the Sports Performance Center and the outdoor practice fields.
- The entire facility will significantly upgrade the amenities provided to the Red Raiders on a daily basis, notably with a two-story players' lounge, the "Uncommon Man" barber shop, a state-of-the-art hydrotherapy recovery suite and a primary 12,000-square-foot locker room located in the Womble Football Center.

- The 2024 season will mark the return of the iconic Double T scoreboard, a landmark on the Texas Tech campus since 1978. As part of the project, Texas Tech constructed a new Double T scoreboard to sit atop the new south end zone building, using the same dimensions as its previous model but placing it at a much higher elevation. The new Double T scoreboard is now 115 feet off the ground at its peak, giving students and alumni stunning views at various locations throughout campus.
- The Red Raiders enter Jones AT&T Stadium each gameday through the Gary Petersen Field Club, a 12,000-square-foot premium space that is among the first of its kind in college football. It is one of several new premium areas as Texas Tech has added 17 new luxury suites to go along with 500 club and loge box seats and two spacious party decks. Texas Tech now boasts 102 premium suites throughout Jones AT&T Stadium to go along with more than 2,500 club and loge box seat options.
- Texas Tech debuted a new team entrance during its Aug. 31 season opener against Abilene Christian as the Red Raiders will now enter behind the south goalpost prior to kickoff. The iconic Masked Rider saddle is located in the Gary Petersen Field Club, giving fans an opportunity to see the Red Raiders touch it one final time on their way into the stadium.
- In addition to the large-scale construction, Texas Tech also enhanced its gameday experience as part of the project, adding nine LED displays through Daktronics as well as a state-of-the-art sound system by Clair Audio, a national leader in large venue audio production. The added LED displays include the main videoboard on the north end of the stadium, expanding it to 37-feet high by 136-feet wide in size with 10-millimeter pixel spacing for excellent image clarity and contrast. Texas Tech also constructed two new video displays atop its south end zone measuring 28-feet high by 48-feet wide, featuring content zoning abilities that are already a staple of the north end zone videoboard. All three new videoboards feature 10mm pixel pitch, providing every fan in the 60,000-plus seat stadium with the highest resolution display in college football.
- The opening of the South End Zone Building to Jones AT&T Stadium officially closed The Campaign for Fearless Champions, one of the most-successful fundraising initiatives in university history that raised more than $500 million to transform Texas Tech's athletic facilities across every sport, while also pouring resources into the student-athlete experience through scholarship endowments and the creation of the J.T. and Margaret Talkington Office of Student-Athlete Development.

ONE OF THE NATION'S TOP RUNNING BACKS

Tahj Brooks entered the national picture as one of the nation's top running backs last season after ranking fourth for both rushing yards and rushing yards per game with 1,538 yards on the ground. Brooks, just the fifth Red Raider in program history to rush for 1,500 yards in a season, is back in the national picture again this season as he is again third in the FBS with 134.0 rushing yards per game entering this weekend's trip to TCU.

Brooks has reached the 100-yard mark in all six games he's played this season as he has totaled 804 rushing yards. He now has 3,856 rushing yards for his career, which ranks second in the FBS among active players behind only Marquez Cooper of San Diego State. Brooks, who has rushed for at least 95 yards in 17-consecutive games, is one of three FBS players currently in the country with 3,500 career rushing yards and 30 rushing touchdowns.

BROOKS ON PACE TO SNAP RUSHING RECORD

- Tahj Brooks has put the Texas Tech career rushing mark squarely in his sights after a strong start to the 2024 season where he is averaging roughly 16 rushing yards more per game than his memorable 2023 campaign. Brooks enters this weekend needing 363 rushing yards over the final five regular season games, plus a potential bowl, to reach Byron Hanspard's career record that was set after his 1996 Doak Walker Award season.
- Brooks, who moved into third place on the Texas Tech career chart at Arizona, is now 210 rushing yards shy of matching James Gray for second all-time in program history as he now has 3,856 yards for his career. Gray is the only other Red Raider to rush for 4,000 yards in a career as he totaled 4,066 yards on the ground over his career from 1986-89.
- Brooks will have his shot at an additional Texas Tech career category as he needs 47 rushing attempts this season to match Hanspard's school record. Brooks is averaging 24.8 carries per game this season, which ranks second in the FBS. He is fifth nationally with 149 total rushing attempts overall.
- Brooks has combined for six rushing touchdowns the past three games, giving him 36 now for his career, which moves him into a tie for fifth all-time in program history with Ricky Williams. He is one rushing touchdown shy from tying Byron "Bam" Morris for fourth place in program history.

100-YARD GAMES ARE JUST ROUTINE NOW

- Brooks has registered 14 different 100-yard games over his last 17 outings dating back to the 2023 season. In the three games he has not eclipsed 100 yards during that span, Brooks recorded at least 95 yards in each contest, which marks the second-longest streak in the FBS since 1996. Only former Minnesota rusher Mohamed Ibrahim has recorded a longer streak as he went 19-consecutive games from 2020-22.
- Brooks has 18 career games with 100 or more yards, which is tied for second all-time in program history, trailing only Byron Hanspard with 21.

THE BIG 12'S LEADING RUSHER SINCE 2023

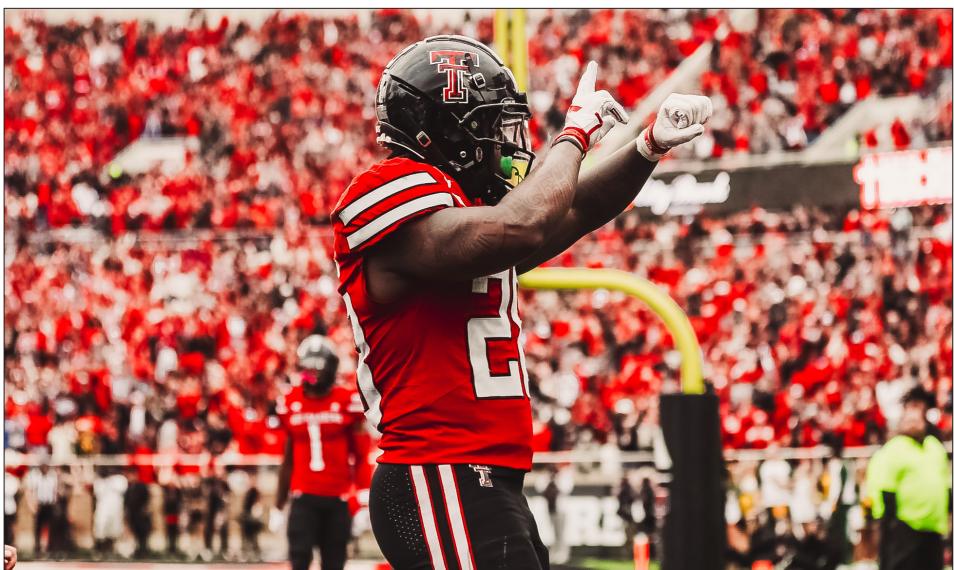

- Brooks has rushed for at least 100 yards in all six games he's played this season as he is averaging 134.0 rushing yards per game, which leads the Big 12 and ranks third in the FBS. Not only is Brooks the Big 12 leader in rushing yards per game this season, but he has also totaled the most rushing yards among conference rushers since the start of the 2023 season.

NEWS & NOTES ON THE BIG 12'S TOP RUSHER

- Despite missing the Washington State road trip, Brooks has 18 rushing yards more than his total through Texas Tech's seventh game of the season a year ago. Brooks ended the 2023 season averaging 118.3 rushing yards per game, exactly 15.7 yards shy of his current average.
- Brooks has found the end zone on the ground in 14 of his last 16 games played dating back to last season as he failed to do so only in the 2023 regular-season finale at Texas and in this year's Big 12 opener versus Arizona State.
- Brooks has recorded nine carries of at least 20 yards already this season, which already matches his career high for a season that was set only a year ago. He broke loose on three carries of at least 20 yards for the first time in his career in the win over North Texas, marking a single-game career high.
- Brooks has forced 32 missed tackles this season, which has created 487 yards after contact, according to Pro Football Focus. Brooks, who led the FBS in missed tackles forced a year ago, ranks 13th in the FBS for yards after contact despite playing one less game than all but one of the top 15 rushers.
- Brooks has hit the 100-yard mark on yards after contact alone three times this season, finishing with 100 yards due to missed tackles against both Abilene Christian and Arizona and then 110 yards against Cincinnati. The performance versus the Wildcats marked the sixth time in his career that he notched 100 of his rushing yards after contact.
- Ask just about anyone in the Texas Tech football office, and they'll likely brag about Brooks' ability as a pass blocker just as much as his rushing skills. Over his career, Brooks has given up only two sacks in 244 career pass-blocking opportunities.

Texas Tech is now 11-3 since the start of the 2023 season in games Behren Morton starts and finishes, which includes an 8-2 mark at home. Morton, who took over as QB1 in the fifth game of the 2023 season, has finished with at least a 60 percent completion percentage in all but two of those 11 wins and was above 70 percent in five different victories against Baylor (73.1), TCU (77.8) and Kansas (76.0) a year ago and versus ACU (71.4) and North Texas (79.0) this season.

Morton, who entered the offseason as Texas Tech's starting quarterback for the first time in his career, has helped power a Red Raider offense that leads the Big 12 in scoring, averaging 38.7 points per game. Morton is completing 63.7 percent of his passes thus far, resulting in 1,926 yards and 17 touchdowns with only three interceptions.

The son of a Texas high school coach, Morton was the highest-rated quarterback (in the online rankings era) to sign with Tech as he was a four-star prospect in 2021, ranking sixth nationally among pro-style quarterbacks. Morton grew up in Lubbock as his father, James Morton, was the head football coach at Monterey High School for 11 years.

OFFENSIVE NOTEBOOKMORTON PROTECTING THE FOOTBALL

- Protecting the football was a significant point of emphasis for the Red Raiders entering the season after Texas Tech finished minus-6 in the turnover margin a year ago. Behren Morton has done his part through the first seven games this season as he has 17 touchdown passes - the ninth-highest total in the FBS - to only three interceptions. Texas Tech is plus-1 in the turnover margin this season, a figure that pushes up to plus-6 in its five wins.
- Even with the rushing attack of Tahj Brooks, Texas Tech remains one of the most active passing teams in the country as Morton currently ranks ninth in the FBS with 270 passing attempts. He is one of nine quarterbacks nationally and the lone one from the Big 12 Conference with at least 200 passing attempts this season with three or fewer interceptions. Of that group, Morton ranks third with his 17 passing touchdowns, trailing only Clemson's Cade Klubnik (20) and Louisville's Tyler Shough (18), who both have less than 250 passing attempts.

BALANCE ON DISPLAY OFFENSIVELY

- Heading into the season, Joey McGuire and offensive coordinator Zach Kittley raved about the upgrade in offensive skill, which would allow the Red Raiders to be more balanced and not rely solely on the legs of Tahj Brooks. In its five wins this season, Texas Tech is near 50-50 in its run/pass selections with 173 combined rushing attempts to 178 passes. The Red Raiders attempted more rushes than passes in two of those wins this season against North Texas and Cincinnati and had an equal 50-50 split with 29 rushes and 29 passes at Arizona.
- Since the start of the 2000 season, Texas Tech has been among the most active teams in the country for passing attempts. Needless to say, there haven't been many opportunities where the Red Raiders have finished with more rushing attempts than passes. It has happened 13 times already in McGuire's tenure as the Red Raiders are a combined 11-2 in those games, including a 2-0 mark this season.
- Texas Tech, even with the loss of Tahj Brooks for the Washington State game, is still averaging 167.3 rushing yards per contest to complement its efforts through the air where the Red Raiders are 20th nationally and third in the Big 12 with 292.4 passing yards per game. That rushing average is roughly five yards higher than Texas Tech's mark a year ago, while the Red Raiders have steadily improved on their 224.0 passing yards per game average from 2023. Texas Tech enters this weekend ranked 19th nationally, averaging an impressive 459.7 yards of total offense per game.

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

- Texas Tech enters this weekend as the Big 12 leader in scoring offense as the Red Raiders are averaging 38.7 points per game through seven games. That average ranks 19th in the FBS and is on pace to be Texas Tech's most-productive scoring season since Patrick Mahomes II's final year directing the Red Raider offense in 2016. In fact, Texas Tech is currently on pace for its eighth-highest points per-game average since 1950.

KELLY ALREADY AMONG NATION'S BEST

- In the weeks leading up to the season, Joey McGuire made the statement "good things happen when Josh Kelly has the ball in his hands." That statement has proven true thus far as the senior has caught a team-leading 53 passes for 590 yards and three touchdowns. Kelly enters this weekend ranked eighth in the FBS for total receptions and 20th for receiving yards as he is on pace to become Texas Tech's first 1,000-yard receiver since Antoine Wesley in 2018.
- Kelly has quickly become a popular target for quarterback Behren Morton as he has made nine catches in four of seven games thus far with one other outing with eight receptions. Prior to joining the Red Raiders, Kelly had only one career game with nine receptions, which came at Cal a year ago while with Washington State.
- Kelly hauled in a career-high 10 passes twice already this season against both Abilene Christian and Arizona State, finishing with 156 yards through the air in the season opener and then 89 yards versus the Sun Devils. He added nine catches at Washington State and again versus Baylor as well as eight in the win over Cincinnati.
- In the two games he failed to make eight or more catches, Kelly finished with two receptions in limited duty against North Texas and then five at Arizona. He was limited to only one half of play in the win over North Texas due to Texas Tech's 55-7 lead at the break.

■ Kelly's 53 receptions through seven games are the most in that span by a Red Raider since Keke Coutee had the same total to start the 2017 campaign. Coutee finished with 93 receptions that season, which marks the last time a Red Raider posted 90 or more catches in a season.

■ Kelly's 53 receptions and 590 receiving yards have already surpassed the team high from a year ago as Xavier White led the Red Raiders with 43 catches for 556 yards.

■ Kelly notched his second 100-yard game as a Red Raider against Cincinnati as he caught eight passes for 111 yards in the win. It was the ninth 100-yard game of Kelly's career dating back to his time at both Fresno State and Washington State as he opened his Texas Tech tenure with 10 catches for 156 yards against Abilene Christian. The performance marked the second time Kelly has reached the 150-yard mark in his career as he finished three yards shy of his career-high that was set versus Oregon State last season in Pullman.

■ Texas Tech's success on third downs this season has partially been the result of Kelly, who shares the FBS high with 18 catches on third downs. He is also fifth nationally and second in the Big 12 with 206 receiving yards on third downs.

■ Kelly has taken advantage of his targets this season as he's turned 24 of his 53 receptions into gains of at least 10 yards, which ranks tied for 15th in the FBS and tied for fourth in the Big 12 entering this weekend.

MORE THAN JUST A BIG-PLAY THREAT

■ Caleb Douglas has developed into more than just a big-play threat this season, especially over the last two games where he has combined for 14 catches for 215 yards and three touchdowns against Arizona and Baylor.

■ Douglas went over the 100-yard mark for the first time in his career at Arizona as he caught five passes for 116 yards in the win. Douglas had two explosive plays of more than 30 yards, both resulting in key points for the Red Raiders, beginning with a career-long 57-yard streak down the right sideline just before halftime. Douglas later added a 32-yard reception late in the fourth quarter that eventually set up a Gino Garcia field goal to give the Red Raiders a 21-19 lead.

■ Douglas found the end zone three times through the air against Baylor as it marked the first time a Red Raider had three or more touchdown receptions in a game since Antoine Wesley caught three as well versus Houston in 2018. He is one of 18 FBS players this season and one of five Big 12 receivers to bring in three or more touchdown catches in a game this season.

MORTON-EAKIN CONNECTION ON DISPLAY

■ Coy Eakin has picked up right where he left off from the 2023 season as he leads the team with five touchdown receptions already this season thanks in part to a pair of touchdowns against both Abilene Christian and Cincinnati. Eakin, is third on the team with 22 receptions and 339 receiving yards so far this season, ranks tied for 28th in the FBS for receiving touchdowns. He is tied for sixth among Big 12 receivers in the category as his five touchdown receptions already match the team-high from a year ago.

■ The strong performance should come as little surprise following the way Eakin ended the 2023 campaign. The sophomore caught seven passes for 106 yards and a touchdown in Texas Tech's victory over Cal in the Independence Bowl, marking his first 100-yard outing in the process.

■ Prior to joining the Red Raiders, Eakin was among the nation's top receivers at Stephenville High School. Eakin led the nation in receiving yards after catching 93 passes for 2,140 yards and 31 touchdowns as a senior en route to leading the Yellow Jackets to the Class 4A Division I state championship.

RED RAIDERS RELOAD UP FRONT

■ Texas Tech overhauled its offensive line from a year ago as the Red Raiders boasted 143 career starts along its offensive line at the start of the season thanks to multiple additions up front like Davion Carter (Memphis) and Sterling Porcher (Middle Tennessee State). That total ranked tied for ninth nationally and was second in the Big 12.

■ The Red Raiders are led up front by veteran Caleb Rogers, who is set to make his 50th career start at TCU. Rogers has started at both guard and tackle this season for a Texas Tech offense that has used four different starting combinations on the offensive line.

OFFENSIVE NOTABLES

■ Texas Tech has never lost a game under Joey McGuire when scoring 40 or more points as the Red Raiders are 10-0 in those games, including a 3-0 mark this season.

■ The loss to Baylor was rare in the fact that it coincided with Tahj Brooks' 18th career 100-yard game. The Red Raiders were previously a perfect 10-0 at home in games where Brooks hit the 100-yard mark as Texas Tech is now 15-3 overall in those games. Texas Tech is also 3-2 in road games where Brooks has 100 or more rushing yards and 2-0 in neutral site contests.

■ Texas Tech rushed for at least 200 yards for the seventh time already under Joey McGuire against Cincinnati as the Red Raiders improved to 7-0 in those games, which includes two wins this season against the Bearcats and North Texas.

■ In between steady runs from Tahj Brooks, the Red Raiders have added a steady dose of explosive plays with 43 plays that have gone at least 20 yards this season. That total ranks second in the Big 12 and tied for 10th in the FBS.

■ Texas Tech has been steady in extending drives on third downs this season, ranking 20th in the FBS and second in the Big 12 with a .467 conversion percentage.

■ Texas Tech has had a 100-yard rusher in Tahj Brooks and a 100-yard receiver (either Josh Kelly or Caleb Douglas) in three different games this season - all wins over the likes of Abilene Christian, Cincinnati and Arizona.

■ Texas Tech has converted all of its red zone opportunities in each of its last five games as the Red Raiders currently rank second in the Big 12 and 13th in the FBS for red zone offense. During that stretch, the Red Raiders are a perfect 22-for-22 in converting red zone opportunities into points with 17 touchdowns and only five field goals.

■ Texas Tech set the modern-era record for the most points scored in the first half of play against North Texas after leading 52-7 at the break. Texas Tech's 52 points was the most in a first half by any Big 12 team since Baylor scored 52 to open its game versus Kansas on Oct. 10, 2015.

SCOUT TEAM AWARDS

Following every victory this season, Joey McGuire will recognize two Scout Team Player of the Week honorees, one for an offensive player assisting the defense and the other to the best defensive player who mimics the opposing offense. Each honoree is presented a commemorative football each Sunday night following practice.

THE BRAND NUMBER

Here at Texas Tech, there is only one available jersey number that is protected: No. 3. The jersey represents the player or players who best represent the core tenants of "The Brand," which represents Texas Tech's daily quest to be the "toughest, hard-working, most-competitive team in the country."

The Red Raiders will have two players wearing the jersey this season in returning linebacker Bryce Ramirez and new wide receiver Josh Kelly. Ramirez was awarded the jersey prior to the 2023 season in recognition for his determination and leadership in response to a catastrophic leg injury suffered the year before at N.C. State. Kelly, meanwhile, previously wore No. 3 at Washington State last season where he led the Cougars with 923 receiving yards and eight touchdowns. Kelly was told during his recruitment that the jersey number is earned and spent the spring in No. 18 before Joey McGuire announced he'd also wear No. 3 this season.

In addition to representing the standards of "The Brand," the No. 3 jersey is designated to honor the life of the late Luke Siegel, who passed in August 2021 after inspiring countless others across the nation with his fighting spirit in the wake of a golf-cart accident. The No. 3 represented Siegel's favorite number.

DEFENSIVE NOTEBOOK

WE TAKE IT, THEN WE SCORE

- Texas Tech's prowess as one of the nation's top-scoring offenses has been, in part, due to its defense. The Red Raiders' 11 takeaways this season have resulted in 68 points, which is already the most for Texas Tech in a season since 2017. In fact, over the past 10 seasons, Texas Tech's 68 points off turnovers already ranks third during that span as the Red Raiders notched 101 points from takeaways in 2015.
- Texas Tech has turned in the bulk of its points off turnovers this season over the course of its recent four-game winning streak. The Red Raiders combined for 60 of their 68 points off turnovers over a four-game stretch with 21 versus North Texas, seven against Arizona State, 14 against Cincinnati and 18 at Arizona. The other eight points came in the season-opening win over Abilene Christian.

TEXAS TECH POINTS OFF TURNOVERS SINCE 2015

Season	Takeaways	Points Off
2015	25	101
2017	29	91
2024	11	68

YES, TAKEAWAYS ARE KEY

- The biggest element of Tim DeRuyter's defense is creating havoc, both in the backfield and via takeaways. With the latter, the Red Raiders have been particularly effective, going 12-2 overall under both Joey McGuire and DeRuyter when leading the turnover battle.
- Texas Tech had won the turnover battle in only nine of the first 26 games under Joey McGuire entering this season but has turned that around so far this season, going a perfect 5-0 when doing so. Texas Tech is currently plus-1 in the turnover margin, an improvement from a year ago when the Red Raiders were minus-6 overall.
- Turnovers have been a consistent speaking point for McGuire throughout his tenure. The Red Raiders are plus-1 in the turnover margin thus far this season with 11 takeaways to 10 turnovers. That margin moves to plus-3 at home and plus-6 in games the Red Raiders have won this season.
- Listen to McGuire for much time and you'll likely hear the phrase "take three" when referring to his defense. The Red Raiders have hit the "take three" mark twice already this season with three interceptions in the win over North Texas and then two interceptions and a fumble recovery at Arizona. The Red Raiders are a perfect 6-0 under McGuire when creating at least three takeaways.
- The Red Raiders will look to take advantage of a TCU team this weekend that is currently minus-10 in the turnover margin this season. Texas Tech created two takeaways in its win over the Horned Frogs a year ago, while failing to give one away.

DEFENSIVE NOTABLES

- Texas Tech snapped a five-game streak with an interception against Baylor as the Red Raiders failed to create a takeaway for the first time this season. Texas Tech has eight interceptions this season, which ranks 26th in the country as the Red Raiders have picked off at least one pass in 10 of the last 12 games overall. Six different Red Raiders have recorded an interception thus far with safeties Chapman Lewis and C.J. Baskerville leading the team with two each.
- Texas Tech is one of only 15 FBS teams and the lone school from the Big 12 with two or more interceptions returned for a touchdown this season. A.J. McCarty provided Texas Tech's second pick-six against Cincinnati, returning his first career interception as a Red Raider for 51 yards. Brayln Lux had the first interception for a touchdown against North Texas as he went 44 yards to the end zone.
- For McCarty, it was his second career interception and his first as a Red Raider. Ironically, both of his interceptions have gone for touchdowns and have come inside Jones AT&T Stadium as he stepped in front of a Tyler Shough pass as a member of the Baylor Bears in 2022, only to return it 18 yards for a touchdown.
- For Baskerville, he picked off the fifth interception of his career to close Arizona State's opening drive to start Big 12 play. Baskerville has recorded four of his five interceptions as a Red Raider after starting his career previously at San Diego State.
- Arizona reached the red zone four times but found the end zone only once as the Red Raiders limited the Wildcats to two field goals and stuffed them on fourth down one other time. For the season, opponents are scoring in 29-of-34 trips to the red zone with eight of those coming via field goals.
- The Red Raiders are tied for 16th nationally entering this weekend with eight field goals being the result of opponent trips to the red zone. During his time as Texas Tech's defensive coordinator, Tim DeRuyter has preached a "put out the fire" approach to his unit as opponents have settled for a field goal 39 times in the 113 times the Red Raiders have given up points in the red zone during his two-plus seasons (34.5 percent).
- Texas Tech limited Arizona State to only 94 rushing yards despite the Sun Devils entering as one of the nation's top rushing teams with 229.3 yards per game. It marked the seventh time under Joey McGuire the Red Raiders have kept an opponent under 100 rushing yards as Texas Tech is now 7-0 in those games.
- Texas Tech produced six 3-and-out drives against North Texas, its most in a game since having 10 versus Murray State in the 2022 season opener. The Mean Green entered the game among the nation's leaders in both passing yards and total offense but were limited to only 218 yards through the air and 353 total yards, the latter the fewest for an opponent this year.
- Texas Tech has allowed a 400-yard passer only three times under Joey McGuire, including twice this season against both Abilene Christian and Cincinnati. Ironically, the Red Raiders are 3-0 in those games.
- The return of Texas Tech's recruiting prowess under Joey McGuire is starting to show this season as 12 different underclassmen have made at least one start this season, including nine on the defensive side of the ball. Texas Tech has had 33 different players make a start this season, including seven sophomores and five freshmen in wide receiver Micah Hudson, defensive back Macho Stevenson, defensive lineman Jayden Cofield, outside linebacker Amier Washington and defensive lineman Braylon Rigsby.

RODRIGUEZ BACK AS KEY LEADER

- Jacob Rodriguez had just made one of the best plays of his collegiate career when his leg was rolled up in the season opener at Wyoming last season. Rodriguez, who both forced and recovered a key fumble only seconds earlier, missed the bulk of the 2023 season with that leg injury before returning in November to help push the Red Raiders to bowl eligibility and an eventual win in the Independence Bowl.
- Rodriguez, ultimately, redshirted the 2023 season, playing four games in the regular season and then the Independence Bowl where he was named the Defensive MVP after totaling eight tackles to go along with two key second-half takeaways with a forced fumble and interception.
- Rodriguez has again emerged as the strong presence the Red Raiders expected a year ago as he leads the team with 66 tackles and 4.5 tackles for a loss. Rodriguez has reached double digits for tackles four times in seven games, totaling a career-high 13 stops in the season opener against Abilene

Christian before adding 11 versus Cincinnati, another 13 stops at Arizona and then 12 versus Baylor.

- Rodriguez was named the Bednarik National Linebacker of the Week for the performance at Arizona as he also got his hands on a Noah Fifita pass at the line of scrimmage, knocking it in the air to an awaiting Quincy Ledet Jr. for an interception just before halftime. His biggest play came with just over two minutes remaining in regulation as he punched out a fumble from the arms of Arizona standout wide receiver Tetairoa McMillan for Texas Tech's third and final takeaway of the win.
- Prior to the two takeaways, Rodriguez recorded Texas Tech's first sack of the night, planting Fifita for a 16-yard loss on Arizona's opening drive. He was the highest-graded linebacker by Pro Football Focus for week six among those with at least 25 defensive snaps, finishing at an impressive 92.3 grade.

- Rodriguez has played a part of four takeaways now this season as also knocked out a forced fumble against ACU and then recovered one of his own to start the second half in the win over Cincinnati.

- Rodriguez signed with Texas Tech ahead of the 2022 season after beginning his collegiate career as a quarterback at Virginia in 2021. One of the best players in Wichita Falls Rider High School history, Rodriguez was named one of five team captains ahead of this season this past January.

- Despite all the accolades, his success might not compare to that of his wife, Emma, who is an active duty helicopter pilot in the U.S. Army. The couple was married in July 2023 in a surprise ceremony (to some) in Houston.

ROBERTS BUILDING OFF FRESHMAN SEASON

- Ben Roberts continues to build off his Freshman All-America campaign from a year ago as he is second on the team with both 51 total tackles and 4.0 tackles for loss this season. Roberts, who became the first Red Raider linebacker to earn Freshman All-America honors since Brian Duncan in 2007, recorded his best outing of the season with a team-high 12 tackles against Cincinnati to go along with 2.0 tackles for a loss, a forced fumble and quarterback hurry. He has eight double-digit tackle performances in 22 career games.

- Roberts played a role in both of Texas Tech's takeaways in the Cincinnati win as he punched out a key fumble on the Bearcats' opening drive of the second half and then provided the quarterback hurry that resulted in A.J. McCarty's pick-six interception. It was the third forced fumble of the season for Roberts, who is tied for eighth in the FBS and second in the Big 12 entering this weekend.

- Roberts closed the 2023 season tied for the national lead among freshmen for tackles as he and Alabama's Caleb Downs both recorded 107 overall. In addition to earning Freshman All-America honors, he was tabbed the Big 12 Co-Defensive Freshman of the Year, marking the first time a Red Raider had collected the honor.

- Roberts recorded the most tackles in a season by a Red Raider freshman dating back to 1980 as Donald Harris is the only other Texas Tech letterwinner to reach the mark after finishing with 104 stops in 1987. He joined current Miami Dolphins linebacker Jordyn Brooks (2016) as the only Red Raider freshman to lead the team in tackles since 1996.

TECH FRESHMAN LEADERS IN TACKLES SINCE 1980

Name (Year)	Pos.	Tackles
1. Ben Roberts (2023)	LB	107
2. Donald Harris (1987)	DB	104
3. Brock Stratton (2003)	LB	95

HE HAS HANDS AND SPEED, TOO

- Quincy Ledet's 50th career game at the college level will likely not be one he forgets anytime soon. The senior defensive lineman turned in one of the key plays in the victory at Arizona as he snagged a deflected pass by Jacob Rodriguez and returned the interception 20 yards into Wildcat territory. The interception marked the first by a Texas Tech defensive lineman since Mychealon Thomas pulled down a deflected pass of his own against Kansas State on Nov. 4, 2017. The Red Raiders went on to score via a Tahj Brooks nine-yard scamper on the ensuing drive following Ledet's interception to take a 15-3 lead with less than two minutes until halftime.

TECH COMING OFF BEST SEASON SINCE 2009

- Texas Tech is coming off its best defensive season in more than a decade as the Red Raiders allowed only 26.0 points per game a year ago. It marked the Red Raiders' fewest points allowed per game since 2009 when Texas Tech limited opponents to only 22.6 points a contest.

- The performance continued the defensive improvements under third-year coordinator Tim DeRuyter, who helped guide the Red Raiders to only allowing 29.2 points per game in his 2022 debut. Prior to his arrival, Texas Tech had not allowed less than 30 points per game since 2009. The Red Raiders only gave up 27.6 points per game during Big 12 play, which, again, was its lowest average since 2009.

GETTING TO THE KICKER

- Texas Tech blocked its eighth kick under Joey McGuire and special teams coordinator Kenny Perry against Arizona State as E'Maurion Banks reached up to block an extra point late in the third quarter. It was the second PAT for Banks to get his hands on in his career as he previously had a similar important blocked PAT late in the 2023 victory over UCF. The Red Raiders, who had four blocked kicks in McGuire's debut in 2022 and followed with three a year ago, lead the Big 12 and rank tied for 10th for blocked kicks since 2022.

OLB ROOM A SPECIALTY OF DERUYTER

- The Red Raiders will be looking to identify its next outside linebacker standout after Texas Tech has had a Red Raider drafted out of that position room each of the last two years with Tyree Wilson hearing his name at No. 7 overall in the 2023 NFL Draft followed by Myles Cole in the seventh round this past spring. The position is a specialty for defensive coordinator Tim DeRuyter, who has now coached 19 NFL Draft selections during his career, including a pair of other top-10 picks at the position in Kayvon Thibodeaux at Oregon and Von Miller at Texas A&M.

RED RAIDERS IN THE NFL

MAHOMES WINS THIRD SUPER BOWL

- Patrick Mahomes II became the first Red Raider in school history to win three career Super Bowls after he helped lead the Kansas City Chiefs to a 25-22 overtime victory over the San Francisco 49ers this past season. It was the second-straight Super Bowl title for the Chiefs and their third in the past five years thanks to Mahomes, who was inducted into both Texas Tech's Hall of Fame and Ring of Honor in 2022.

- With his first Super Bowl win over the San Francisco 49ers, Mahomes became the youngest player in history to be named NFL MVP and also win a Super Bowl. Mahomes, who at only 24 years of age, was tabbed Super Bowl MVP after leading the Chiefs to their second Super Bowl title in history and their first since 1970.

- In July 2020, Mahomes signed the richest contract in NFL history as he and the Chiefs agreed on a 10-year extension worth up to $503 million. It marked the second time in school history where a Red Raider has signed the richest NFL contract as Ring of Honor member Donny Anderson previously did so with the Green Bay Packers upon being drafted in 1965.

- While maybe known for its offense in recent years, Texas Tech has had two recent first round draft picks from its defense in current Seattle Seahawks linebacker Jordyn Brooks and Las Vegas Raiders edge end Tyree Wilson. Wilson became the highest-drafted Red Raider in program history in 2023 after being selected seventh overall. Brooks, meanwhile, signed with the Miami Dolphins this past offseason after spending the first four professional seasons with the Seahawks.

- Texas Tech has had three Red Raiders hear their names called during the NFL Draft early in Joey McGuire's tenure as, in addition to Wilson, defensive back Dadrian Taylor-Demerson went in the fourth round this past spring followed by rush end Myles Cole in the seventh round. Texas Tech has also had more than 10 Red Raiders sign undrafted free agent contracts during McGuire's tenure.

THE NATION'S MOST EXPLOSIVE RETURNER

One of the core concepts behind Texas Tech's weekly "plan to win" strategy is the directive to "be special on special teams." Texas Tech has consistently been among the nation's top special teams units under associate head coach and special teams coordinator Kenny Perry.

Part of that success has come from the return game where Drae McCray is one of the most-explosive kick returners in college football. McCray enters this weekend ranked 12th in the FBS and second in the Big 12 with a 25.8 kick return average this season. He is averaging 29.3 yards a return over his career, which is second nationally among active FBS players.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTEBOOK*GETTING THE BALL IN HIS HANDS

■ Texas Tech will look for any way to get the ball into Drae McCray's hands as he ranks among the most explosive players in college football. McCray is one of only two kick returners in the FBS to boast multiple returns of 50 or more yards, joining Tulane's Rayshawn Pleasant. McCray has five returns of at least 50 yards since his arrival at Texas Tech prior to the 2023 season, which leads the FBS during that span.

■ Both of those returns of more than 50 yards came in the season opener versus Abilene Christian as he brought back his first kickoff return of the season for 74 yards, marking the second-longest of his career, before escaping for 65 yards later in the third quarter. Texas Tech combined for 10 points on the two ensuing drives due to the positive field position. He finished with three returns for 165 yards at an impressive average of 55.0 yards.

■ McCray now ranks seventh all-time in program history with 1,026 career kick return yards in only 20 games as a Red Raider. McCray, who is 75 yards shy of matching Ivory McCann for sixth all-time in program history, became the sixth Red Raider to reach 1,000 kick return yards as a Red Raider. Of the six letterwinners ahead of him on the all-time kick return chart, all recorded at least 40 career attempts compared to only 38 thus far for McCray.

COMPETITION ISN'T ALL THAT BAD

■ Texas Tech entered the season with a kicking competition that will continue into the back half of the season as Gino Garcia and Reece Burkhardt have combined to connect on all 13 field goal attempts this season as well as all 28 PATs. Garcia is a perfect 10-for-10 on field goal attempts as he has found the uprights in 23 of his last 25 tries dating back to the 2023 season. Burkhardt, meanwhile, entered this season with no field goal attempts in his career but has already connected on three, including two from at least 40 yards.

■ Even with the use of two kickers, Texas Tech has the second-most successful field goals in the FBS without a miss so far this season, trailing only UAB with 14. Only two other teams have 10 or more attempts without a miss this season as the duo of Garcia and Burkhardt are joined by the likes of Kentucky (11) and Pittsburgh (10). Texas Tech's 13 made field goals are five shy of the national lead set by UNLV.

■ Burkhardt, who emerged to force a kicking competition following a strong spring, has also handled kickoff duties for a second-consecutive season as he has sailed 34-of-48 attempts for touchbacks (70.8 percent). That's a higher number from a year ago where he recorded a touchback on 40 of his 64 attempts (62.5 percent).

■ Garcia, meanwhile, became the first Red Raider in school history a year ago to connect on three or more field goals in a season of 50 yards or longer. He earned honorable mention All-Big 12 accolades after finishing 16-of-22 overall on field goal attempts on the season, including an impressive 9-for-10 during Big 12 play. Garcia closed the season by connecting on 14 of his final 16 tries.

■ Garcia is one of six FBS kickers without a field goal miss this season and one of only four with 10 or more attempts, joining Kentucky's Alex Raynor (11-for-11), UAB's Jonah Delange (14-for-14) and Pittsburgh's Ben Sauls (10-for-10). He is tied for fourth in the Big 12 for total made field goals, trailing only Arizona's Tyler Loops (14-of-18), Utah's Cole Becker (12-of-15) and BYU's Will Ferrin (11-of-14).

■ Garcia arrived at Texas Tech in 2022 following three seasons at Houston Christian. Garcia, who was placed on scholarship by Joey McGuire prior to the first bowl practice last season, is 58-for-79 on field goal attempts over his career as he has connected from 48 yards or longer nine times, including a career-long 59-yarder at Houston Baptist in 2021.

RED RAIDERS GO DOWN UNDER

■ Texas Tech has a new punter for the first time since 2019 following the graduation of Austin McNamara, who ended his career with the highest average in program history. Jack Burgess has been tabbed to fill his shoes as the Australian arrived following two seasons at Weber State.

■ Burgess averaged 44.1 yards per punt over 100 attempts during his two stints in Utah. He was one of eight semifinalists a year ago for the FCS Punter of the Year Award after averaging 47.2 yards over his 54 attempts, which led the Big Sky Conference and ranked second in the FCS. The Wildcats were also second in the FCS with a 42.0 net punting average.

■ Burgess has been called on to punt 26 times this season as he is averaging 42.3 yards an attempt. He has downed nine of his punts inside the 20. Burgess was called on seven times in the win at Arizona, matching his career high.

■ This is the second time in recent memory that Texas Tech has turned to Australia for its punter position as Dominic Panazzolo was the Red Raiders' starter over the 2017-18 seasons.

WELCOME TO THE THREE STRIPE LIFE

- Texas Tech will have a new footwear, uniform, apparel and accessory partner beginning with the 2024 season after signing a 10-year agreement with adidas. The collaboration comes as part of adidas' evolving work with brand partner and Texas Tech alumnus Patrick Mahomes II, who will be the first adidas athlete to have his logo featured on official collegiate apparel. Texas Tech and adidas have already launched co-branded apparel featuring Mahomes' signature Gladiator logo.
- On a busy day in college athletics, the Texas Tech and adidas announcement reached 17 million users across social media platforms as part of a large-scale unveiling that incorporated "ripping the tape" off the partnership, a reference to the shirt Mahomes infamously wore the 2019 Men's Final Four.
- As part of the partnership, all eligible student-athletes at Texas Tech will have the opportunity to join the brand's historic NIL Ambassador Network, which gives all student-athletes at adidas-partnered Division 1 schools the chance to benefit from their Name, Image and Likeness. Since its inception, over 12,000 student-athletes nationwide across a variety of sports have participated in the network, earning a percentage of the sales they drive for key products and campaigns.

HUDSON JOINS TEAM MAHOMES NIL

- adidas and Patrick Mahomes made noise prior to the season after announcing the signing of six Texas Tech student-athletes, including freshman phenom wide receiver Micah Hudson, to NIL deals. They are the inaugural cohort of Team Mahomes, the three-time Super Bowl Champion's NIL initiative with adidas.
- The six Red Raiders were welcomed to Team Mahomes on Aug. 23 with a surprise visit by Mahomes to Texas Tech's campus and were gifted customized Mahomes gear. The student-athletes joining Team Mahomes will participate in brand marketing campaigns, including for Mahomes' signature shoe and apparel line with adidas.

- In addition to Hudson, adidas and Mahomes selected Nijaree Canady - the reigning USA Softball National Player of the Year - as well as Jasmine Shavers (women's basketball), Matthew Comegys (men's golf), Sam Courtwright (soccer) and TJ Pompey (baseball) to Team Mahomes.

MAHOMES GLADIATOR UNIFORM REVEALED

- adidas and Patrick Mahomes have unveiled a new Texas Tech University football uniform that features Mahomes' signature "Gladiator" logo – one of the first times in history that an athlete's personal brand has been included in official on-field apparel. The Red Raiders will wear the Mahomes Strategy uniform (pictured below) for the first time at home against Colorado on Nov. 9.
- The Mahomes Strategy uniform features a Dark Grey tackle swill with printed metallic films and Power Red accents. Inspired by the 45-degree bevel found across Texas Tech's campus and the angular nature of Mahomes' iconography, the helmet, logos and numbers are displayed in a metallic film with galvanized finishes.
- Texas Tech's Mahomes Strategy uniform is the latest addition to the partnership between adidas, Mahomes and Texas Tech that has repeatedly established new firsts in collegiate athletics and NIL. In addition to the uniform unveil, there will several other product offerings for Red Raiders fans included in the new Texas Tech x Patrick Mahomes collection, including a Dark Grey quarter-zip, fleece hoodie and new colorway of the Ultraboost 5X – all featuring Mahomes' Gladiator logo.

HEAD COACH JOEY MCGUIRE

THE HALL OF FAMER

- There likely isn't a power-five football program in the state of Texas with better ties to its high school coaches than at Texas Tech as McGuire hired six members of his charter coaching staff that have ties to the Texas High School Coaches Association (THSCA). McGuire, himself, is already a legend at the prep level as a member of the THSCA Hall of Honor and the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame.
- McGuire, owner of three state titles as head coach of Cedar Hill High School in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex, was inducted into the THSCA Hall of Honor (THSCA) in 2020 and then the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame in 2022 in the months after accepting the Texas Tech position. McGuire is still an avid speaker at the annual THSCA Convention and regularly hosts clinics for high school coaches each year.

NOT THE ONLY COACH IN THE FAMILY

- Turn on a television any weekend this fall and you could possibly see another McGuire roaming the sidelines as Garret McGuire is entering his second season as the wide receivers coach at Nebraska. The younger McGuire previously played under his father at quarterback at Cedar Hill High School before enjoying four years as a backup quarterback at Baylor. He joined the coaching profession immediately after, serving as an offensive assistant under new Nebraska head coach Matt Rhule while with the NFL's Carolina Panthers.
- Garret isn't the only McGuire building an impressive career, either, as Raegan McGuire is a fashion designer for AMUR in New York City. Her designs have been worn by several high-profile figures, including Natalie Biden, the granddaughter of President Joe Biden, as well as Taylor Swift during her spring 2023 Eras Tour.

THE BRAND

The core tenant under McGuire revolves around The Brand, which stands for his desire that the Red Raiders be the "toughest, hardest-working, most-competitive team in the country." On his final interview for the Texas Tech position, McGuire described his vision for the Red Raider program using The Brand, which President Lawrence Schovanec said "describes West Texas."

WHAT'S NEXT!

Step into any Texas Tech practice and the phrase "What's Next" is one you'll hear early and often. No matter if something good or bad happens on the field, McGuire and his staff stress a "What's Next!" mentality, emphasizing that the focus should be on the next play or rep. And for reference, the phrase is always a statement, never a question, as evidenced by its exclamation point at its end.

TAKE THREE UNIVERSITY

McGuire, a defensive coach at heart, heavily utilizes the phrase "Take Three" as a program. The phrase has transformed into a rallying cry from the defense with in-house video production signaling "one," "two" or "three" each time the Red Raiders create a takeaway. McGuire, prior to each game, regularly wears a t-shirt designed for the defense that says "Take Three University."

ONE OF THE QUICKEST TO 20 WINS

■ Joey McGuire recorded his 20th win of his career at Arizona, making him the quickest Texas Tech head coach to reach that mark since Steve Sloan from 1975-77. McGuire is the fourth head coach in program history to reach 20 wins in 32 or fewer games at Texas Tech, joining not only Sloan but also E.Y. Freeland (1925-28) and Pete Cawthon (21-12). Below is a listing of Texas Tech's head coaches through 33 games leading the Red Raiders.

BIG 12 VICTORIES UNDER MCGUIRE

- The win at Arizona marked Texas Tech's 13th victory already in Big 12 play under Joey McGuire, who was only the second head coach to win 13 of his first 21 league contests since the Red Raiders joined the Southwest Conference in 1960. Steve Sloan was also 15-6 at the same point in his Texas Tech tenure from 1975-77 before finishing 17-10 against SWC foes during his three seasons leading the Red Raiders.
- McGuire has returned the Red Raiders to being one of the Big 12's most-competitive teams as Texas Tech was 5-4 in each of his first two seasons, marking its first winning record in league play since 2009. In the 12 seasons since that 2009 campaign, the Red Raiders were only a combined 36-71 (.336) during Big 12 play with no seasons of at least a .500 record.
- In its nearly 30 years as a Big 12 member, Texas Tech has never finished above .500 in league play over three-consecutive seasons. The Red Raiders experienced a nine-year stretch from 2001-09 where Texas Tech, playing an eight-game conference schedule, recorded at least a 4-4 mark against its Big 12 peers.

THE BOOK ON FOURTH DOWNS

- Much has been said about Joey McGuire's aggressive approach to fourth downs over his first two seasons. That approach has evolved this season, though, as Texas Tech has gone for it on fourth down only 16 times, significantly less than the combined 89 attempts the past two seasons.
- The Red Raiders have been among the most-aggressive teams on fourth downs under McGuire, converting 65 of their 105 attempts (.619) over his two-plus seasons. Texas Tech was 24-of-37 on fourth downs in 2023 after going 33-of-52 during McGuire's debut season in 2022.

■ Texas Tech is tied with Baylor for the most fourth-down conversions since 2022 as the two schools have moved the sticks 11 times more than any other FBS program. Baylor leads the FBS with 118 fourth-down attempts during this span.

■ It's not the fact that the Red Raiders are so daring under McGuire that's impressive. It's the fact that it's proven to be successful, too. The Red Raiders are a combined plus-113 over his two-plus seasons in the plus/minus scale, which is determined based on the result of Texas Tech's ongoing drive or points scored by an opponent on a failed attempt.

■ In total, the Red Raiders have gone for it on fourth down at least five times in 10 different games under McGuire. Texas Tech has converted at least one fourth down in 27 of 33 games under McGuire and has attempted at least one fourth down conversion in all but three games, including twice this year against Arizona State and Arizona.

NEWS & NOTES ON MCGUIRE...

- McGuire became the first head coach in school history to win a bowl game in each of his first two seasons after the Red Raiders downed Cal in the Independence Bowl. Texas Tech previously knocked off Ole Miss to close his inaugural 2022 campaign at the TaxAct Texas Bowl.
- McGuire is now only the second head coach in program history to lead the Red Raiders to bowl games in each of his first two seasons, joining the late Mike Leach, who pushed Texas Tech to a bowl game in each of his 10 seasons.
- Texas Tech has hit the 40-point mark 10 times during McGuire's tenure as the Red Raiders are a perfect 10-0 in those games during his two-plus seasons.
- There is defense in West Texas as Texas Tech is 12-1 overall under McGuire when holding opponents to 25 or fewer points. Texas Tech has limited its opponents to 25 or fewer points eight times during Big 12 play under McGuire and has done so in each of its two bowl victories.
- McGuire's eight-win debut in 2022 finished one victory shy for the most by a first-year head coach in program history as Dell Morgan previously led the Red Raiders to a 9-2 record in 1941. McGuire led the Red Raiders to a 5-4 record in Big 12 that same season, becoming the first head coach to notch a winning conference record (above .500) in his debut season since David McWilliams did so in 1986.

TEXAS TECH COACHING STAFF

ZACH KITTLEY

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
3rd Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Sideline

Career Breakdown: Kittley returned to his alma mater to put together a strong debut season as the Red Raiders averaged 34.2 points per game and 461.4 yards of total offense per game despite using three different starting quarterbacks in 2022. Kittley has worked with a pair of NFL quarterbacks during his short coaching career, first with Patrick Mahomes II at Texas Tech and then Bailey Zappe at both Houston Baptist and Western Kentucky.

TIM DERUYTER

Defensive Coordinator
3rd Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Pressbox

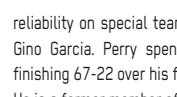

Career Breakdown: DeRuyter arrived in Lubbock having served as a defensive coordinator or a head coach in each of the past 21 seasons. In 2023, the Red Raiders allowed only 26.0 points per game - their lowest average since 2009 - en route to their second-consecutive season with a winning Big 12 record. The previous season saw Tyree Wilson selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. DeRuyter was previously the head coach at Fresno State from 2012-16.

KENNY PERRY

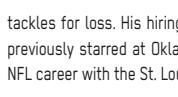

Associate Head Coach/Special Teams
Coordinator/Running Backs
3rd Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Sideline

Career Breakdown: Perry, a legendary high school head coach in the DFW metroplex, had one of the nation's top running backs in 2023 with Tahj Brooks to go with the reliability on special teams with punter Austin McNamara and kicker Gino Garcia. Perry spent 14 years as a high school head coach, finishing 67-22 over his final seven seasons at Arlington Bowie alone.

C.J. AH YOU

Outside Linebackers
3rd Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Sideline

Career Breakdown: Ah You mentored Tyree Wilson to first team All-America honors during his debut season on the Red Raider staff as Texas Tech, behind Wilson the Red Raiders ranked in the top 20 nationally for tackles for loss. His hiring marked his return to the Big 12 where he previously starred at Oklahoma (2005-06) before enjoying a six-year NFL career with the St. Louis Rams.

JOSH BOOKBINDER

Inside Linebackers
3rd Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Pressbox

Career Breakdown: Bookbinder was among Joey McGuire's first hires at Texas Tech after the two previously served on the defensive staff at Baylor (2019-21). Texas Tech surrendered only 26.0 points per game in 2023 as Bookbinder navigated around an injury to starter Jacob Rodriguez in the season opener, only for freshman Ben Roberts to develop into the Red Raiders' leading tackler and an All-American. Bookbinder is the grandson of legendary Baylor head coach Grant Teaff.

JOSH COCHRAN

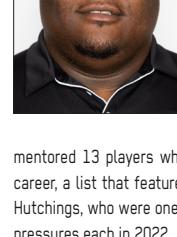

Running Game Coordinator/Tight Ends
3rd Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Pressbox

Career Breakdown: Cochran shifted over to coach the tight ends under Joey McGuire after spending the previous two seasons as the co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Austin Peay. Cochran, who was named in July 2022 to Dave Campbell's Texas Football "40 under 40" coaches list, is a one-time THSCA member as he began his career in the prep ranks at Lindale High School in East Texas.

ZARNELL FITCH

Defensive Line
3rd Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Sideline

JUSTIN JOHNSON

Assistant Head Coach/Passing Game Coordinator/Receivers

Game Day Location: TBD

MARCEL YATES

Passing Game Coordinator/Secondary
3rd Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Sideline

CLAY MCGUIRE

Offensive Line Coach
1st Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Sideline

Career Breakdown: McGuire (no relation to Joey McGuire) returned to his alma mater following two seasons as the offensive line coach at Washington State, his second stint with the Cougars after serving in a similar capacity for six years under Mike Leach from 2012-17. Under his tutelage, Cody O'Connell became a two-time All-America selection, and the second unanimous All-American in Washington State history in 2016 and was the school's first Outland Trophy finalist.

Career Breakdown: Yates, a former defensive coordinator at both Boise State and Arizona, mentored Dadrian Taylor-Demerson, who earned second Team All-Big 12 honors in 2023 and was selected in the fourth round of the 2024 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals. The Red Raiders allowed only 29.2 points per game in Yates' debut season in 2022 before improving to 26.0 points in 2023. Yates arrived in Lubbock from Oregon where he was the secondary and passing game coordinator during the 2021 season. He has worked alongside defensive coordinator Tim DeRuyter each of the past three seasons at both Cal and Oregon.

WEEKLY AVAILABILITY REPORT

Texas Tech will adopt a new availability reporting procedure beginning this season that is intended to provide the public and the media with timely information regarding the availability of student-athletes. Each week during the regular season, the Texas Tech sports medicine staff will provide an availability report for that week's game notes. The availability report will break student-athletes into three categories: out for season, out for upcoming contest and questionable. If a student-athlete will not return from injury during the season, he will be listed as "out for the season" each week. Texas Tech will list the nature of the injury based on the area it occurred (i.e. knee, ankle, upper body).

Outside of this update each Monday, the Texas Tech coaching staff will no longer go into detail on the nature of an injury. This will include the availability of student-athletes for practice that week. Again, the goal is to provide the media with this information ahead of Monday's regularly-scheduled press conferences with head coach Joey McGuire and coordinators.

Prior to each game, the athletics communications office will email an availability update roughly 45 minutes prior to kickoff. This report will only include student-athletes listed that week on Texas Tech's depth chart or key contributors to special teams, not its entire roster.

Morton was named one of five team captains for the 2024 season on Jan. 24, 2024, validating an unquestioned leadership role as he embarked on his first offseason of spring practices, summer workouts and preseason training camp as the starting quarterback. While gaining starting experience as a young quarterback, he has not been immune to injuries himself over the last two seasons, but when healthy, owns a 12-5 career record in games he's started as well as finished. Touted as the highest-rated QB signee in program history. Starting debut came on the road, Oct. 8, 2022, at No. 7 Oklahoma State - answered by becoming fourth freshman since 1999 to have 300-yard passing game in first career start. I think you would see a lot of that style football whenever Cam is in the game." Joined Texas Tech from West Georgia (a D-II program in 2023/joined ASUN starting in 2024). Was tabbed the Gulf South Conference Offensive Freshman of the Year after throwing for 914 yards and 10 touchdowns in 2023, while adding an additional 478 yards and six scores on the ground. Owns 18 career 100-yard games, which ranks tied for second in program history alongside James Gray (18). Brooks only trails Hanspard (21) in that category, the same running back he is chasing for the all-time career rushing record. Will also look to become only the fourth Red Raider in program history to lead the team in rushing in four different seasons, joining Taurean Henderson (2002-05), Ricky Williams (1997-98, 2000-01) and James Gray (1986-89). From Austin area Manor HS where he registered three seasons of at least 1,000 yards rushing. Brooks held his first youth camp in June 2023 at Manor High School; a free event that had more than 200 kids attend his camp on Father's Day, June 18. An endzone celebration pointing to his wrist to open the 2021 season versus Houston at NRG Stadium, which has grown into the staple slogan, "Tahj Time." This past summer, it morphed into TahjTime.com, prior to Big 12 Media Day in Las Vegas, a place where updated news and videos of Brooks can be found each week during the 2024 season.

33 CAMERON DICKEY
Fr. | 5-10 | 215

- A true freshman at Texas Tech. Touted as one of the most prolific athletes in Austin ISD history out of Crockett High School - the same region Tahj Brooks hails from. Helped lead his high school to its first playoff win in 26 years during senior season. Is another Texas Tech signee who excelled in track and field, member of the basketball and baseball programs as well, earning first team all-district honors as an outfielder for sophomore and junior seasons and helped the basketball program to back-to-back district titles. Ranked as a 4-star prospect by On3 and a 3-star recruit by 247Sports and Rivals.

17 ISAAC SMITH

Jr. | 6-6 | 260

- Missed entire 2023 season due to a preseason injury. Had a strong finish to his R-Fr. season in '22, starting the last two games, included 4 TKL, 2.0 TFL and first career sack in bowl game vs. Ole Miss. Role significantly increased following the injury to 2023 NFL first round draft pick Tyree Wilson.

ILB

10 JACOB RODRIGUEZ

R-Jr. | 6-1 | 230

- A HS QB that spent first collegiate season at U of Virginia in '21 as a QB, blossomed into a productive Tech linebacker in '22. 3 BRYCE RAMIREZ

Sr. | 6-2 | 235

- Has a well-documented story having suffered a compound leg fracture in first career start at NC State (9/17/22). Surprised with a scholarship prior to the 2021 season getting underway.

TACKLE

52 DE'BRAYLON CARROLL

Sr. | 6-0 | 300

OLB

11 CHARLES ESTERS III

Jr. | 6-3 | 260

- Back in lineup after missing first four games of 2024 to injury. Emerged as a productive edge player as a sophomore, making first three career starts. First start came vs. K-State, one week after having 2.0 sacks vs. Baylor (10/7). Attended same HS that head coach Joey McGuire coached at.

ILB

13 BEN ROBERTS

R-Fr. | 6-2 | 225
